- 1. Background
- 2. Analysis of current issues
- 3. Achievements
- 4. Upcoming strategic choices
- 5. Steps

1. Background

1. BACKGROUND

- At the request of Québec's Department of Culture and Communications (Ministère de la Culture et des Communications/MCC), CALQ's 2012-2016 Strategic Plan was enhanced and extended until March 31, 2018.
- CALQ must put together a new Strategic Plan, which will take effect on April 1 and will cover a four-year period (2018-2022).

1. BACKGROUND

- CALQ is a Québec government-owned enterprise that reports to the MCC.
- CALQ is governed by three pieces of legislation:
  - Its incorporating statute
  - Québec's *Act respecting the governance of state-owned enterprises
  - Québec's *Public Administration Act

Certain aspects of CALQ's Strategic Plan are aligned with the above legislation and are required to comply therewith.

1. BACKGROUND

- CALQ is at the centre of a vibrant, flourishing and ever-changing artistic environment:
  - CALQ seeks to remain attuned to current trends and responsive to the real needs of creators and organizations with a view to providing support tailored to professional artistic and literary practices.

1. BACKGROUND

- CALQ's areas of focus in recent years have sought to address a number of important broad-spectrum issues:
  - Hybrid nature of artistic disciplines
  - Diversity of clienteles and audiences
  - Generational renewal
  - Quality and viability of artistic and organizational approaches

1. BACKGROUND

- The useful life of artistic works
- Promoting the arts
- Research, experimentation, technological changes, innovation, boldness
- Spotlighting key notions, including excellence and peer recognition, as the central focus of CALQ's activities.

1. BACKGROUND

- CALQ undertook to address these issues while upholding the principles of flexibility, equity and simplicity in its approaches and processes:
  - Reviews of its main programs were carried out. Along the same lines, the MCC undertook to review Québec's Cultural Policy.
  - Thanks to a consultation tour of Quebec's regions, in addition to the submission of 450 position papers and some 3,000 survey responses, the priorities of the general public and the cultural sector became clear.

1. BACKGROUND

- CALQ is the prime stakeholder capable of attesting to trends in the professional artistic and literary sector.
- CALQ's close ties with the sector play a key role in this regard.

2. Analysis of current issues

2. ANALYSIS OF CURRENT ISSUES

- Flexibility in dealings with clients
- Concern for community diversity
- Diversified viewpoints for juries and evaluation committees
- Peer evaluation based on artistic quality and mandate fulfilment
- Emphasis on excellence and viability rather than historical considerations

- Extend the useful life of creative/production projects via improved dissemination of artistic/literary works
- Support innovative models, shared services and aid-based initiatives
- Promote works and creators with a view to reaching audiences more effectively
- Recognize specific geographic particularities

3. Achievements
